The Daily Commercial.

THE Connecticut town elections, about 100 in number, are nearly equally divided, a result considered decidedly favorable to he Union cause.

ELECTION RETURNS from Georgia, so far as received at Savannah on the 7th, show that Governor Brown was largely ahead.

SEYMOUR LOCKWOOD, a man about thirty years old, was accidentally blown up in Springfield, Vt., on Tuesday of last week, while blasting rocks. He lived about an hour after.

THE publication of the Baltimore Gazette, recently suppressed by General SCHENCK, has been resumed, the principal proprietor having disavowed the disloyal articles formerly published. The two secessionist editors of the Gazette are still in Richmond, whither they were sent by Gen. SCHENCK.

"IF posterity condemns me, it will be because I did not hang John C. Calhoun as a traitor."
ANDREW JACKSON.

Now, if the Copperhead Democracy have any love or respect for "Old Hickory," they should all, with one accord, go out and hang themselves.

IN the communication signed Armstrong, there is a slight mistake, the British agent stated that he had subscribed $5,000 to be handed to the Democratic Committee, and if that party was successful, Pennsylvania would be added to the Southern Confederacy, and being so annexed, no laws for revenue or other purposes would be passed, restrictive of British monopoly on Iron or Coal. ARMSTRONG.

DEATH OF GEORGE SUMNER.—GEORGE SUMNER, brother of Senator SUMNER, died in Boston, on Tuesday, of paralysis. The Boston Transcript says of him:

"MR. SUMNER was one of the most accomplished men of the time. He was not only familiar with many languages and many literatures, but in the course of a long residence abroad, had explored almost every part of Europe, and made the acquaintance of the most prominent European statesmen, publicists and men of letters. The information he had derived from books was but a small part of the treasures of knowledge which his observing eye and retentive memory had stored up in his mind. He knew things from personal examination, and men from personal intercourse, and it was hardly possible to touch, in conversation, on any subject connected with the manners, customs, localities, scenery, or public men of European countries, that his personal recollections and experience did not throw light on the subject, however remote it might be from ordinary lines of study."

THE POLISH CHIEF LELEWEL.—A letter from Lublin to the Czas says that the real name of Lelewel, the Polish chief lately killed in action with the Russians, was Martin Borelowski, a native of Cracow, a tinman by trade, and afterwards proprietor of a manufactory of pumps at Warsaw. Intrepid, disinterested, and devoted to the cause of his country, he sacrificed to it his property and his life. At the commencement of the insurrection, on the 22d of last January, he left Warsaw and took the field in the palatinate of Lublin, at the head of a handful of young artisans. Not long before his death the national government promoted him to the rank of colonel, and rppointem him Military Chief of the palatinate of Podlachia.

THE NEW YORK POLICE have made a raid upon a notorious gambling saloon on the corner of Broadway and Twelfth streets, kept by a man named Dedrich, and took into custody the proprietor, together with the cue-keeper, waiter, and all the visitors they could lay their hands upon. The whole party were arraigned at the Tombs. Diedrich, and the cue-keeper, Johnson, were held for trial, but the others were allowed to depart, with a warning not to be caught in such places in future.

This house was one of the most fashionable of the up-town gambling saloons. The implements seized by the Police were of the most costly manufacture. It was the resort of merchants and merchants' clerks, and tall stories are told of the vast amounts of money nightly lost and won at its tables. One young man, who recently came into an inheritance, is said to have lost $10,000 in about a month. Among other "spoils" taken by the Police were $1,017 in bank bills, and a check for $298, which were found on the table.

FROM CINCINNATI.

Special Correspondence to the Daily Commercial.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 8, 1863.

We have at last some accurate details of the recent cavalry raid in the rear of Rosecrans' army. On Thursday of last week Wheeler, with a cavalry force estimated at 6,000, crossed the Tennessee river at Washington, thirteen miles above Chattanooga, and passed down the Sequatchie valley. At the foot of the mountain, near Anderson's Cross Roads, he fell on one of our army trains and captured fifty wagons, loaded with ammunition, rations, clothing, medical and sanitary stores, all of which were destroyed. Some fifty sutlers' wagons also fell into their hands, and were plundered and burned.

When this became known, Gen. Mitchell with the Union cavalry started in pursuit, and during the two days following killed and wounded seventy of the rebels, took upwards of 200 prisoners, and recaptured 250 mules. On reaching what is known as the Walnut Range, the rebels finding themselves closely pursued, shot 200 mules to prevent their falling into our hands, and pushed on to McMinville, which they took possession of on Sunday morning, together with the garrison, three companies of the 4th East Tennessee regiment, and destroyed a small quantity of Government stores. The prisoners, however, were rfterwards recaptured. General Mitchell was close on the heels of the enemy, driving them through Woodbury in the direction of Murfreesboro, and on Monday night last was but four hours behind the rebels, who had camped at Grey's Gap. The pursuit was recommenced on Tuesday morning, since which nothing has been heard from them.

The report of damages inflicted by Wheeler to the Nashville & Chattanooga Rpilroad, were much exaggerated. The bridge over Stewarts Creek was not burned, and the only damage done was at Christiana, where the rebels crossed in diverging from the road leading from Woodbury to Murfreesboro. The damage was very slight, and the road is again in operation. Wheeler has made nothing by the adventure so far, losing more men and horses than the Federals, and failing in the object of his raid, which was to destroy portions of the railroad, so as to prevent the reinforcements, known to be on the way, reaching their destination. Even had he destroyed the road at any important point, he was too late by several hours, for the reinforcements, or at least a portion of them had arrived and gone into camp at Bridgeport. Their baggage and equipments, and their muskets and a thousand round of cartridges were on the way, and might have been cut off. By this time I presume they are up with the men.

The troubles in Kentucky continue, but the disturbing force has been over-stated. The capture of Glasgow is discredited. There is no considerable guerilla force anywhere in the State, and those now active in surprising small detachments of Federals, plundering and murdering Union citizens, and committing outrages that put the devil to blush, are chiefly resident secessionists, the fellows who were not permitted to vote for Wickliffe, and in whose behalf the sympathizing Copperheads of the Free States are howling dismally about lost liberties and all that transparent make-shift of demagogues.

Gen. Burnside has now a large force in East Tennessee. He has not reinforced Rosecrans, nor is it expected that he will. He has a portion of over three hundred miles to guard; Sam. Jones on the East, and small bodies from Bragg, on the West, to "clean out." If he does that, he will have accomplished all that would be required of him. The organization of 20,000 home guards, that is a force whose peculiar province will be to aid in keeping the Secesh out of that portion of the State, has already proved a valuable auxilliary in operations in that quarter.

We every day anticipate important news from East Tennessee. The most serious objection I apprehend in East Tennessee, is a lack of subsistence. There is some grain in the country, but not sufficient to subsist an army during the winter, and the roads via Cumberland Gap will soon be impassable. Our troops will have to subsist mainly on beef and Mountain mutton, of which there is an unlimited supply.

There is a large body of East Tennessee refugees in this city, who will soon start for their deserted homes. It is thought best that they should not undertake the toilsome journey till the question of "eminent domain" is settled, by the battles which are inevitable, and which will be fought before the middle of November. They are exceedingly anxious to depart, but will, I think, wait for results.

NEW YORK, October 10.—The World's New Orleans correspondent has the following important news. Gen. Logan hovers around Baton Rouge, and clouds of mounted Partisan rangers hover along the river on the right bank, from Donaldsville to the mouth of Red river, and on the left bank from Baton Rouge, and often below that point to Natches and beyond. Gen. Herron's division is at Morgan or Morgan's Bend, on the right bank about twenty-five miles above Port Hudson, had been engaged for several days skirmishing with a body, as they supposed, of guerrillas.

The rebels are becoming more daring and annoying. Gen. Danna, now in command of Herron's Division, sent out a numbor of regiments to feel the enemy and ascertain his strength. The enemy was felt and proved himself nuch too strong for the force sent against him. A severe engagement ensued, resulting in a loss to the Union army of several hundred killed and wounded and some fifteen hundred prisoners. This took place on Tuesday, the 29th inst., and since then the rebel forces have assumed the offensive, and are pressing Dana's men with such vigor that the gunboats have been called on to aid them in repulsing the enemy.

All the sugar houses and all other structures standing in the way have been leveled to the ground, but it is reported still that the gunboats can be of little service, owing to the numerous bluffs in that vicinity. The rebels are still there, and will do greater mischief if General Dana is not reinforced. This body of Confederates is said to be under the command of Prince Polignac, Brigadier General in the Provisional army of the Confederate States. The truth is, reinforcements are sadly needed here, and until they are received, the people of North need not expect to hear of anything being done in this Department, beyond the mere holding of the same.

NEW YORK, October 10.—The specials this morning are almost devoid of anything. The Tribune's dispatch has the following:

The President has completed his reply to the Missouri-Kansas delegation, and the manuscript is now in the hands of the copyist. It will probably be handed to the Chairman, Mr. Drake, to-morrow.

The Kansas delegates presented a distinct address, asking, first that the State be made into a separate Department, or, secondly, that Gen. Schofield be removed, and a General who better understands the requirements of the Department be substituted.

To the first proposition the President is reported to have replied that he could see no objection to making Kansas a separate department, providing there was no obstacle from a military point of view. Several consultations have taken place upon this and the other points between the President and Secretary of War. Nothing is positively known as to the conclusions arrived at by the President, but those most interested incline to the belief that Kansas will be made a separate department, and that Gen. Schofield will not be removed, but that orders will be issued directing Gov. Gamble and his military coadjutors to carry out some if not all the reforms asked for by the committee in their conferences with the President. Mr. Lincoln assured them the election of judges in Missouri in November should be protected. The delegates are therefore sanguine of success at the polls.

Secretary Chase started this evening for Ohio.

WASHINGTON, October 9.—Lookout Mountain, from which Bragg endeavors to bombard Rosecrans, is 1,800 feet higher than Chattanooga. Missionary Ridge, where the rebel dispatches are dated, is 1,000 feet high, three miles from Chattanooga by road, and two miles by air line. Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge nearly encircle Chattanooga, which lies in a basin formed by the mountain ranges around it.

Bragg has an open railroad communication with Rome, forty miles and Atlanta, one hundred and thirty-six miles distant, from whence he can bring up the heaviest siege guns cast at both of those points. The Etowah Sheller Works are sixty miles from Chattanooga, also connected therewith by railroad.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 8th inst., announces that the Raleigh, N. C. Standard has again made its appearance since having its office damaged by a mob. The Raleigh State Journal, which was among the greater sufferers, has not yet resumed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Gen. Wadsworth left this afternoon for New Orleans, where he is to have an important command. He will go by the inland and Mississippi route.

The non-exchange of Surgeons, usually regarded as non-combatants, arises from the detention of one named Dr. Rucker, by the rebels, who professed to have charges against him. Our government thereupon detained rebel Surgeons as hostages. The rebels then kept other Surgeons as fast as captured, and rebel Surgeons were consequently held. There are now about 25 of our Surgeons in rebel hands, and we have a still larger number of theirs in our hands.

The N. Y. Herald has the following dispatch: Nashville, Oct. 8.—We are again in uninterrupted communication with the front.

Latest from Rosecrans.

WASHINGTON, Oct 10.—A Republican extra says the Government has received dispatches from Chattanooga dated the 9th, and official dispatches from Nashville of the most encouraging character.

Gen. Mitchell overtook the rebel cavalry on the 6th, below Shelbyville. A battle ensued, resulting in the complete rout of the enemy, who left over 100 dead on the field, and a large number wounded.

The Railroads torn up by the raiders have been repaired, and telegraphic communication re-established.

The sacking of Shelbyville was a disgraceful affair.

Bragg's bombardment of Chattannooga was a complete failure. No damage was done except the burning of a few dwellings.

From Nashville.

LOUISVILLE, October 6.—A Nashville correspondent says but three buildings were burned by the rebels at Shelbyville, the Court House and two others. The town was plundered throughout, and some 1500 prisoners were taken. This is considered doubtful. Major Lester of the Fourth Confederate cavalry, captured Captain Smith of Sheridan's staff.

COLUMBUS, Ky., Oct. 9.—Three of the negroes concerned in the murder of the Beekman family some time since, were hung here to-day. Detachments of the 18th regulars, 14th Iowa and 2d Tennessee artillery, all colored troops, witnessed the execution. Three others indirectly connected with the murder, sentenced to imprisonment for five years, also another, sentenced for one year, were sent to Nashville under guard to-day.

Latest from Gen. Blunt.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10.—The Democrat's Leavenworth special gives the particulars of the attack of Gen. Blunt and escort, below Fort Scott. He was attacked by three hundred rebels in Federal uniform, near their encampment. Lieut. Pond and his escort broke, and out of one hundred men, seventy-eight men were killed, all shot through the head, evidently after they were captured.

Schooner Burned.

ST. CATHERINES, C. W., Oct. 10.—A schooner loaded with coal oil was burned last night in the Welland canal. The captain was drowned. Navigation is temporarily obstructed.

NEW YORK, October 10.—Flour, 10c better at $5 70@5 80; Ohio State at $6 30@6 50; R H O Wheat receipts are $1,563 18, market very much excited from 3 to 5c higher. Rye firmer, but too unsettldd to quote. Corn receipts 91,102 unsettled. Opening from 1 to 2c better, closing dull at 1c better; $10 2@10 3 afloat.

A FIFTY thousand dollar fire occurred on Thursday, in East Water street, Milwaukee. One block was quite consumed, and two others were much damaged.

IN New York, the trial of Browne, the abortionist, for the murder of Clementine Anderson, has terminated in a verdict of manslaughter only, in the fourth degree. The penalty is two years in the State prison. The Doctor will receive his sentence on Saturday. Simms, the alleged seducer, will next be tried as an accessory before the tact.

"My wife, Margaretha Wolf, left my house without any provocation. I wish her to come back in about eight days, or I shall refuse to pay any debt of her contracting. T. WOLF."

The Vermont Legislature convened in Montpelier on Thursday. The House was organized by the election of A. B. Gardiner, of Bennington, Speaker, and the re-election of Edward R. Stewart, of Derby, Clerk. In the Senate, Henry Clark, of Poultney, was chosen Secretary, and H. L. Lamb, of Burlington, assistant Clerk, and the Rev. H. L. Stone, of Northfield, Chaplain. Gov. Holbrook delivered his valedictory in the afternoon.

ATTEMPT AT ASSASSINATION BY A COPPERHEAD.—The Mauch Chunk Gazette gives the following account of an attempt to murder a man who was engaged in serving notices to drafted men: On Saturday afternoon last about four o'clock, a most cowardly attempt was made upon the life of Mr. B. F. Gould of Hickory Run. Mr. G. was riding along the road on horseback, and when about half way between Hickory Run and the Lehigh Tannery in Kidder township, some villain, concealed in the woods near the road, fired upon him with a heavy load of large shot. Fifteen shot took effect on Mr. Gould, entering his back, arms and other parts of the body. His horse also received fourteen shot. Mr. G. had been serving notices on the drafted men in Kidder township, and was on his way home. His horse plunged and threw him, but regaining his feet he made in the direction of the shot, and fired upon the running villain, but without effect.

THE NATIONAL HORSE FAIR at Providence, R. I., which opened on Wednesday, is said to be an immense success.

WOODWARD's patriotism may be defined to mean, that he prefers to cast his lot with traitors in the South, rather than serve his country with honest men in the North.

THE Post says that CURTIN is a Know Nothing. We rather guess they will find, on Tuesday next, that he is a Know Something, and fully understands how to excoriate snakes.

MR. ESMERALDO, the fighting editor of the Aurora Times, fought a duel, Oct. 5, in San Frances Co., with Dr. RICHELLOTTE. The editor received the ball of his adversary in the ankle, greatly shattering it.

THE United States sloop-of-war Ticonderoga sailed from Philadelphia on Tuesday with sealed orders. Fifteen war vessels are now lying at the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

THE 13th Army Corps, General Ord, has left New Orleans, and is supposed to have gone after the rebel General Dick Taylor, and General FRANKLIN's corps had also sailed—destination unknown.

A LETTER from HENRY WARD BEECHER was received by the Persia, dated London, Sept. 15th, in which he says we need not expect him home just yet. He had made engagements to speak in London on the 20th September, and subsequently, at Liverpool, Manchester and Birmingham.

ON A STRIKE.—The journeymen coopers of New York are on a strike. So are the poor sewing girls. Those engaged in the umbrella business have memoralized their employers for higher wages. At present six to eight cents for each umbrella is nll they receive.

THE burning of steamboats on the Mississippi is believed to be a systematic plan to cripple the armies by destroying the supplies. The burning is attributed to agents of the rebel government who travel on board these boats, and the remedy would be to forbid all civilians taking passage on board boats carrying Government supplies.

AN ANGRY BISHOP.—JOHN H. HOPKINS, Bishop of the Diocese of Vermont, has written a very angry letter to Bishop POTTER, in which he scolds the latter for his protest against Bishop POTTER's scandalous letter on the Bible view of slavery. This pro-slavery Bishop of Vermont gives notice that he will publish in a few months a new work in defence of slavery.

A REBEL LIE.—The Washington Republican says that the rebel papers have repeatedly stated, of late, that BRAGG held five thousand prisoners, captured on the 20th and 21st ult. When the exchange took place the other day he turned over to Gen. Rosecrans a few less than two thousand men, wounded and all. We know this to be a fact.

CLOSING OF BUSINESS HOUSES ON ELECTION DAY.—A large number of the leading business houses of Cincinnati have determined, in order to allow their employees an opportunity to vote, and to see to it that all Union voters are brought out, to keep their various places of business closed on Tuesday, the 13th inst., and all devote themselves to their country on that day. This is a judicious movement, and should be adopted by the mecrhants of Pittsburgh.

General MEIGS telegraphed to Washington the exact nature of the bombardment of Chattanooga, and according to his despatches there is nothing threatening in the rebel movements. It is believed in military circles that ROSECRANS is sure not only of holding his position, but also of repulsing the rebels with great slaughter if they venture to attack him. The reinforcements which were on the way to Chattanooga must have reached him by this time in sufficient numbers to enable him to profit by any false movement of the enemy.

IMPORTANT TO ELECTION OFFICERS.—Judge WOODWARD, of the Supreme Court, has decided that a volunteer does not lose his "residence" by service in the army, and is entitled to vote in the precinct in which he resided previous to enlistment. In Philadelphia, Judges THOMPSON and ALLLISON have decided "that a soldier is not disqualified from being assessed, and does not lose his citizenship by becoming a soldier, but retains his residence in the elec. tion district from which he enlisted.." Election officers should bear this in mind.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE.—Mr. FIELD is still working diligently to have the Atlantic Telegraph project resuscitated. There is a telegraph cable laid from Malta to Alexandria, which is 1535 miles long, which is only a few hundred miles less than the Atlantic cable. Another from France to Algiers is 520 miles long, and from England to Denmark is 368 miles long. There are 32 submarine cables now in operation in Europe and India. The cable now proposed to be laid across the Atlantic will sustain eleven miles of its own weight in water, which it is believed will be sufficient to prevent any breakage fatal to the working power of the cable.

A MISSIONARY FALLEN.—A letter from Bludan, Syria, announces the death of Rev. FRAZIER, a missionary of the United Presbyterian Church to Damascus, at that place, on Sabbath, August 30th, after a short illness of about a week. His associate writes, September 1st, as follows:

"He went with Mrs. F., week before last to Nebk, to spend a Sabbath there. He was not very well on the road and became quite ill. He preached on the Sabbath, though with much difficulty. They returned on Monday and Tuesday to Bludan. He suffered much on the road. He was very ill Tuesday night and Wednesday, but the next day he seemed better, and continued rather better until Saturday, when he suddenly became very much worse. His sufferings during Saturday night and Sabbath were very great, until within a short time of his death, when they seemed to cease, and his spirit at last passed away without a struggle."

Woodward on the War.

GEORGE W. HART, a gentleman of high standing, undoubted veracity, and a lifelong Democrat, on the 3d of the present month, writes from Philadelphia, where he resides, as follows:

"On the 7th of July last, the Tuesday after the battle of Gettysburg, I left my home in this city for the purpose of visiting the battle-field. At Wrightsville I took the stage, and found myself in company with several gentlemen, one of whom was the Hon. George W. Woodward, who had just then been nominated for the office of Governor. I rode with him from Wrightsville to Gettysburg, and I also returned in his company from Gettysburg to York.

"As we were journeying toward the battle-field the conversation was naturally of the war, and at Oxford, in Adams county, there was quite a discussion between Judge Woodward and the Rev. Edward Strong, of New Haven, Connecticut, who was one of the party. Judge Woodward denounced the Administration and the war in very strong and decided terms. He said that it was an unconstitutional war and an Abolition war, and that he had no interest whatever in the result, let this result be what it might; that it was a contest in which the North could gain neither credit nor honor, and this, he believed, would be the verdict of history.

"I was with Judge Woodward for a good part of three days, in going and returning, and there was much more said by him to the same effect as the above; and there was not one word of sympathy uttered by him, in my hearing, for the Government, or for those who were sacrificing their lives for its support. As a loyal citizen, who has always voted for Democratic nominees, I was shocked at the sentiments which were uttered by one who held a high judicial position, and who aspired to receive yet higher honors from the State; and this conversation produced the same effect on other minds as on my own, for a gentleman who happened to hear a part of it remarked to me that the Judge had lost one Democratic vote."

These are the sentiments of Judge WOODWARD, the copperhead candidate for Governor, concerning the terrible struggle which the nation is maintaining against the slaveholders to save itself from being overthrown by them—his sentiments as deliberately expressed and reiterated over and over again just after his nomination as a candidate for Governor, on the very battle-field of Gettysburg, within sight of all its fearful blood and carnage, and within hearing of the groans and shrieks of our wounded, suffering, dying soldiers. What do the freemen of Pennsylvania think of such sentiments? What do they think of the man who, under such circumstances, could deliberately give utterance to them? Are they ready to choose him for their Governor?

In order to understand the enormity of the Judge's sentiments let us look at his language a little in detail. Mr. HART says he "denounced the war in very strong and decided terms. He said it was an unconstitutional war" on the the part of the Government—unconstitutional without limit or qualification, condition or exception—so much so that "he had no interest whatever in the result, let this result be what it might"—so much so that he had "no word of sympathy to utter for the Government or for those who were sacrificing their lives for its support." According to the Judge, therefore, the war is, on the part of the Government, all over and all through unconstitutional—unconstitutional as a whole and in every one of its parts, in its conception and origin, its aims and designs, its plans and operations, its ends and results.

Now, if the war is thus unconstitutional on the part of the Government, it follows as an inevitable consequence that it is a bold, naked, accursed usurpation and tyranny, without anything to palliate or excuse, much less to justify or sustain it. It follows inevitably as a further consequence, that slaveholders in levying immense armies, fighting terrific battles, and shedding oceans of blood to put down the usurpers and tyrants, and crush out the usurpation and tyranny, are doing exacily what every principle of patriotism and honor requires them to do. And it inevitably follows as a still further consequence that Judge WOODWARD, if he was a genuine patriot, a true hearted American, instead of lolling at his ease, enjoying all the comforts of a good, fat salary in Pennsylvania, would be away down in Dixie, fighting shoulder to shoulder along with his slaveholding brethren, the battles of the Constitution against the "malignant fanatics" of the North.

Suppose we elect WOODWARD Governor, and, in addition to that, a majority of the same kidney to each house of the Legislature—a thing that we certainly will do if we elect him Governor—where will Pennsylvania be in regard to the war? Will she remain on the side of the North, or pass over to the side of the South? Will not the whole influence and power of the State be exerted to paralyze the arms of the Government, to thwart all its efforts to crush the rebellion? Can any one doubt it? What would have been the consequence if WOODWARD had been Governor when LEE invaded the State last summer? Can any one have a doubt on the subject? Would he not have welcomed the invaders with open arms, and handed over the State, bound hand and foot, to them to do as they pleased with?

This is WOODWARD's attitude in regard to the war; every one of his sympathies with the rebels and against the Government; every one of his convictions in favor of "human bondage as divinely sanctioned, if not divinely ordained;" and against human freedom as a "malignant fanaticism." Occupying such an attitude, cherishing such sentiments and sympathies, are we ready to make him our Governor, and risk the consequences?

Allegheny vs. Berks.

WHILE we disapprove of betting on elections, yet all must admit that they show how the wind blows. In Philadelphia the Democrats will not bet on the general result in the State, unless given ten to fifteen thousand majority in CURTIN's favor. The favorite bet, however, in Philadelphia, is Berks against Allegheny county. We are told that probably $100,000 in the aggregate is pending on that issue. We fear that this indicates some enormous fraud as likely to be acted in Berks county. On an honest poll Allegheny can give 2,000 of a majority greater than Berks possibly can. At all events let this serve as an inducement to every lazy friend of the Union to arouse himself to his duty. Allegheny must and will be in 1863, as she was in 1860, the banner county of the State and the Union.

Philadelphia in a Blaze.

Last Saturday afternoon a grand procession received Governor CURTIN on his arrival from Pottsville, and escorted him to the Continental Hotel. He addressed the immense crowd from the portico of that house. In the evening Independence Square could scarcely contain the mass assembled to hear him. Mayor HENRY, General BUSTEED and RAYMOND of the N. Y. Times followed. Afterwards Col. MATTHEWS, of Maryland, Judge SHANNON, of this city, and we know not how many others spoke. An immense torchlight procession, filling up whole miles of the streets of that city, was in motion at eleven o'clock at night, when our reporter left. Philadelphia may give ten thousand majority for CURTIN.

One Day's Fight

And that is all we ask of the friends of the Union. Let them give up business altogether to-morrow. The fight will be as important as any on the battle-field.

Vote, every true Union man, early; and then busy yourselves all day in hunting up the absentees, and bringing them to the polls. Besides, be sure they have their receipts and necessary vouchers.

Be careful to observe that no illegal vote, within your knowledge, is received without objection. We Union men want a legal and fair election, and let us sternly resist anything else.

As an evinence of the decline of slave property since the outbreaking of the rebellion, seven full grown young negroes were recently sold in Maryland for $126, an average of $18 a piece. Before the war they were valued at $1,500 a head.

The Last Wriggle.

The avowed copperhead organ of this citp sends up a final wail over the destruction of "every right which a freeman holds dear" by the suspension of the writ of habeus corpus in an article whose nonsense is scarcely equalled by its mendacity, and only surpassed by the contemptible cowardice which seeks to array its ignorant and bigoted partisan followers against the Government which protects them and in favor of the rebelt raitors, whose cause it secretly upholds, but dare not openly avow.

Why does not the Post fairly state that the decisions of copperhead judges—as M'CUNN, LEONARD, and LOWRIE, overruling the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, in the case of ABLEMAN vs BOOTH, and seeking thereby to create a conflict between the Federal and State courts, and embarrass the Government, already sore beset by traitors—rendered it necessary for the President to interfere and prevent the disloyal judges from using their position to give aid and comfort to the Southern armed Democracy, by withholding reinforcements from our armies in the field by impeding the draft.

Why does it not inform its readers that by the operation of the Act of Congress authorizing the suspension, the Secretaries of War and State are required to furnish lists of all political prisoners within twenty days, in order that they may be proceeded against by the Grand Juries of the United States Courts by indictment, and that, in the event of the failure of the Secretaries to furnish the lists, any citizen may proceed by petition. That no citizen can suffer anything more than a short delay, and that nobody but Copperheads, base enough to be traitors, but too cowardly to commit the overt act, complains of any inconvenience which the suspension of this writ has produced, much less any hardship which it has caused. Why does it not explain truly that in fact the suspension of the writ only acts to deprive the State Courts of the power to interfere in a single class of cases, in which they claimed a concurrent jurisdiction, but in which the highest tribunal in our country had already decided they had no jurisdiction at all; which was acquiesced in by loyal judges everywhere, and only sought to be annulled by LOWRIE, LEONARD and others desirous that our armies, weakened by disease and death, should, for want of reinforcements, be compelled to withdraw to the north banks of the Ohio and Potomac—the expressed desire of the Copperhead leader in this State, Mr. Justice WOODWARD.

Why does not the Post plainly tell the truth in the premises? It surely cannot hope to gull any thinking man by such whining, miserable plalitudes, "firman from the Sultan," "an ukase from the Czar." Pish! The acknowledged sharpness of its political knavery must convince the Post on reflection, of the inconceivable stupidity of such balderdash.

Again, the Post asserts that hospitals are ransacked, and wounded soldiers heretofore pining for their homes, but refused leave by the Department, are now told they may go home, if they will vote for CURTIN, (the italics are the Post's.) Our armies are withdrawn from the face of the enemy and the soldiers are asked to come home and vote for CURTIN. For two weeks the conscript hunters have vacation, &c., &c. In answer we ask:

Produce the Democratic soldier who is detained in any hospital, or is able to get home to exercise his franchise of voting. The man does not exist; all our soldiers, as far as possible, are allowed this privilege, which GEORGE W. WOODWARD's decision sought to deprive them of. There is no distinction made, but the great majority of the men true to the cause for which their blood has been shed will vote for their friend, the patriot, ANDREW G. CURTIN. We do not know that more than the usual proportion of men in the army have been furloughed, but that our army is withdrawn from the face of the enemy, is a wicked falsehood; it is not withdrawn; and that it was unable to advance to assured victory at the golden moment is solely due to the fact that the Post's friends in New York, by resisting the draft, made necessary the sending of thirty thousand men to that city to enforce the laws.

To conclude, we dare the Post to produce the name of a single one of "the many leading men who have not voted with the Democrats for two years" who are with them heart and soul "in their effort to aid the armed Democracy in their attempt to destroy our country. We would like to see the name in print.

The Judges of the Election

Will, it is expected, act as become sworn officers, in the correct discharge of their duty.

In no instance ought they to receive the votes or strangers without the vouchers and oaths of responsible men to prove their eligibility as voters.

For instance, a man may have the certificate of naturalization, and may be assessed, and may have receipts for taxes, and yet after all be an imported voter from some other State.

If the officers of the election are wary, such attempts at imposition will be foiled. Let the strictest scrutiny be observed in all doubtful cases.

What has been done by unprincipled men at former elections, will no doubt be attempted at this great crisis in our country's affairs. All the papers for aliens have been forged, and so with receipts for taxes. And not only has this infamous plan been used to defeat the honest voters, but men who think the "end justifies the means," have already voted on dead and living men's papers, other than their own!

Let the motto of our election officers be, "Eternal Vigilance is the price of Liberty!"

A LAST CARD.—The Post has issued a hand-bill purporting to be the statement of Sergeant W. MURPHY, of the 1st battalion of six months Cavalry, headed, "Soldier's Friend—Shoddy." If the blackguard and drunken sot made such a statement, he admits a fact—that he was paid five thousand dollars to go to Europe, and absent himself as a witness. Judge LOWRIE had interposed a writ of certiorari and smothered the case, and when this witness was present, when the honest (now deceased) Judge M'CLURE would have investigated it, and inflicted upon the authors proper punishment. Who is to blame that a legal and proper investigation was not made? The drunken and perjured witness attaching his name to the hand-bill, or the honorable and Christian Supreme Judge, who, at the solicitation of Judge SHALER and other conscientious Democrats, screened the guilty parties? We pause for a reply. Let us have light. A witness who admits that he was bribed to absent himself cannot be trusted by any honest man. Give the scoundrel and the Judge who screened him a wide berth. Let them steep in infamy together. Mr. MURPHY's willingness to swear to anything has been already made known to many of our best citizens, whose convictions of his utter unreliability induced them to withdraw from any action on the premises dependent upon his statements.

THE Union State Executive Committee of Ohio have issued an appeal to the people of the State to bring out every loyal voto, and see that none but loyal voters are allowed to exercise the elective franchise in the coming election. To enable civilians of Ohio employed in the army to come home to vote, the Governor has ordered State agents at all points to issue hali fare tickets. It is estimated that fully three thousand voters will thus be added to the poll.

INFORMATION was received in Washington that some thirteen thousand Union soldiers, prisoners, at Richmond, had been exchanged by the rebels and were on their way to, or were at, City Point, on James River, to obtain transportation home.

ON the 26th of September last the number of sick and wounded soldiers in the different hospitals throughout the country was fifty-seven thousand eight hundred and thirteen—a reduction of nearly one third from the uumber in hospital at the same time last year.

IN the panegyric of the Archduke MAXIMILIAN, by the Mexican Special Commission, one singular reason given for his selection for the throne is this: "To bear the sceptre one must be bon on ths steps of a throne." Were any of the Napoleons born on the steps of a throne? One might suppose they were because so many of them have been kicked off.

A GENERAL OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC ON OUR ELECTION.—A gallant general commanding a division in General Meade's army, a life-long Democrat, writes from the front, where his men are picketing the Rapidan, as follows:

"We are anxiously awaiting the result of your election. All are Curtin men at my head-quarters, and so are nine-tenths of my command. I think as much depends on the election in Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York as on any battle that could be gained in the field. The defeat of Governor Curtin I should consider one of the greatest disasters that could befall the Union cause at this time. I trust there is no danger of such a result."

ANOTHER FLEET OF FAST SHIPS TO BE BUILT.—Orders have been received by the naval constructors at New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Portsmouth, to prepare for the construction of twelve fast steam corvettes—three in each yard. These vessels will each be over two thousand tons burthen, and carry some fifteen or twenty guns. They are to possess great speed. Mr. DELANO is now rapidly making preparations for putting down his ships, and the constructor at Porttmouth is ready to begin. The Philadelphia and Boston yards are not quite ready to begin yet. It is said that the engines of these vessels will be very powerful, their cylinders measuring seventy inches, which would give them a speed of fifteen or sixteen miles an hour. Their hulls are to be shaped for rapid movement, and every thing about them constructed with a view to speed.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.—The stockholders of the Commercial Printing Company will hold a meeting on MONDAY EVENING, October 12, at 7½ o'clock, at the Office of the Company, 72 and 74 Fifth street, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization, and the selection of directors for the company to serve for the ensuing year.

Committed vo Jail.—John Wich was committed to jail on Saturday, by Alderman Taylor, for abusing his wife.

Final Papers.—During the past week a very large number of applications for final papers have been filed with Commissioner Sproul, a large majority of the applicants being Irish.

Seriously Injured.—Lieutenant H. P. Callow, of the Eighty-Second Pennsylvania Volunteers, of this city, was thrown from his horse while on duty near where they are encamped, breaking his collar-bone.

Strange Similarity.—The reporter of the Post Saturday morning copies word for word, the reporter of the Gazette's account of the Uniontown Union Meeting, in referring to the Greensburg Union Meeting, with the single exception of substituting the names of the latter for those of the former.

Suits for Trespass.—The case of the city of Pittsburgh vs. the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago R. R. for trespassing on the Allegheny wharf, came up for a hearing on Saturday evening before his Honor, Mayor Sawyer; but owing to the absence of material parties it was laid over until this morning at ten o'clock.

The Oil Exchange.—The new desks for the Oil Exchange are finished, and have been placed on 'Change. On Thursday there will be a meeting by the members for the purpose of disposing of them by renting them, and for other business, at which a full attendance is earnestly requested.

An Accident.—A little boy by the name of Geo. King, son of Mr. R. A. King, of Anderson street, Allegheny city, was injured by a locomotive on Friday at noon. It passed over his leg, crushing it, and it is feared it will have to be amputated. He was playing on the railroad track, near Anderson street, when the accident occurred.

Editors Commercial: The undersigned having been charged with being a Copperhead, he wishes the public to understand that he has never belonged to that party, and never expects to. He has probably been confounded with a gentleman of the same name, who is connected with the Democratic party.
F. BEILSTINE, Spring Garden, Reserve tp.

Pittsburghers in Philadelphia.—Among those registered at the Philadelphia hotels, on Saturday, were the following Pittsburghers:—J. D. Glancey, J. S. Rowen, H. T. Coffey and wife, Joseph Richards, J. H. Warner, Wm. W. Brown, Capt. Geo. W. Ahl, Geo. W. Wood, A. C. Silverman, J. B. Morgan, Jr., Wm. Frew and wife, and A. W. Lukens and wife.

Hurrah for Agnew.—In the late Democratic Convention on Wednesday, some fellow carried a banner on which was an inscription of "Curtin, &c." An individual, however, who read the inscription translated it, "Hurrah for Curtin & Agnew." Such a demonstration, although not premeditated, struck terror to the heart of a great many people and gave spirit to the friends of Union.

Meeting at New Castle.—Notwithstanding a very heavy rain was falling, and the weather in every way unfavorable to out-door demonstrations, the lively town of New Castle and its environs turned out en masse to listen to the eloquent remarks of Dr. McCook and Judges Agnew and Cunningham, on Saturday. Our informant states that even the good people of Lawrence county were astonished at the turn out.

Union Meeting at Etna.—A large and enthusiastic Union meeting was held at Etna on Saturday evening. Lieut. A. G. Lloyd, acted as President; John Smith, Vice President, and J. R. Barfield, Secretary. Speeches were made by Mr. Lloyd, Wm. Moffett, Esq., and Rev. J. E. McGarr. The meeting adjourned with three cheers for Curtin and Agnew and the Union candidates.

A Prize Party.—A number of our young men intend giving a prize party at Lafayette Hall, on Friday evening, 30th inst. The best lady dancer will receive a set of jewelry worth $25, and the best gentleman dancer a ring worth $25. The gentleman who brings the largest number of ladies will receive a diamond breastpin. The soiree is in the hands of gentlemen of character and respectability, and that it will prove a success we have not the least doubt.

Tobacco Thieves.—Friday afternoon two boys between eight and ten years of age, were before Alderman Donaldson, charged with the larceny of tobacco from the manufactory of Mr. Megraw, St. Clair Street. Mr. Megraw employs quite a number of boys in his establishment, some of whom have been in the habit of taking quantities of tobacco each evening, running up the amount stolen during the week to upwards of one hundred dollars worth. The boys were held to bail.

Eternal Vigilance, etc.—The inspector general of provost marshals has appointed an extra officer for each election division in the State, to be in attendance at the polls on the day of election, for the purpose of arresting persons who have failed to report after being drafted, and who may choose to be attracted to the polls. The alienage list will be in the hands of civil officers, who will make any arrest in connection therewith required, upon any one attempting to vote who were exempt from the draft on the plea alienage.

Copperhead Demonstrations.
On Saturday, as the train was returning from the Johnstown Convention, as it entered the town of Cambria, it was met by a delegation of Copperheads, who assaulted it, throwing stones through the windows, but fortunately injuring no one. A gun was also fired by some one, the charge passing over the train. In Johnstown, a flag with three bars and nine stars was taken from a man and destroyed. It is by such demonstrations that the Copperheads attest their loyalty and devotion to the Union.

Union Meeting in Union Township.—On Saturday a large and enthusiastic meeting of the loyal voters of Union Township was held in the Union Tavern. M. Larimer, Esq., was called to the chair as President, and William Barnes, Benj. White, Andrew McCartney and John Smithley, Esqs. as Vice Presidents, and Capt. B. Young, Secretary. The meeting was addressed by A. Cameron, Esq., Benj. L. Blood, Esq., and H. C. Mackrell, Esq. The enthusiastic manner in which the remarks of the speakers were received, showed with what earnestness the people have entered upon the work that will be completed to-morrow.

Meeting at Oil City.—The gathering of the loyal men and women at Oil City, on Monday, was a grand success, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, and the failure of Governor Curtin and other speakers to arrive. The number present was estimated at from 8,000 to 10,000. The wagons and vehicles numbered about 400. The meeting was addressed by H. L. Richmond, H. C. Johnson, L. D. Rodgers, R. S. M'Cormick, and S. P. M'Caimont, Esqs.; and the enthusiasm manifested seemed to know no bounds. In the evening, the Hon. J. M. Newville of New Jersey, and Col. E. W. Davis addressed a tremendous crowd in front of the Petroleum House.

A Serenade.—The employees of the Pittsburgh Post-office, on Friday night, about 11 o'clock, marched in procession, with torches, to the residence of S. F. Von Bonnhorst, Postmaster, corner of Grant and Fourth streets, and, accompanied by the German Band, serenaded Gov. Randall, who is the guest of our worthy Postmaster. After the band had played several beautiful pieces, speeches were made by Governor Randall, Senator Jim Lane, and Col. Sherwood. The greatest degree of enthusiasm prevailed; and the crowd, which had swelled to two or three hundred, made the welkin ring with their shouts for the honored gentlemen in attendance, and for our worthy candidates, Curtin and Agnew.

A Manly Act.—On Saturday evening a number of young men got hold of an old German, on Grant street near the Cathedral, and proceeded to worry him, pulling and pushing him about from one to another. A young man who was passing by requested them to desist, when they retorted by giving him an impudent reply. He promptly resented the insult by knocking two of them down, and quietly led the old German away. As he was leaving a third one of the party made use of an insulting remark, which he only heard, when he went back and gave the offending party a couple of blows that made him take to his heels. There were a number of persons present, who warmly applauded the chivalrous conduct of the young man.

The Beaver Fair.—The exhibition of the Beaver Agricultural Society last week drew a larger attendance than any previous exhibition of the Society. The crowd on Thursday is said to have been the largest ever seen in Beaver. The list of articles, stock, &c., on exhibition was much smaller than usual, but all that was exhibited was of excellent quality. The trotting match on Thursday was won by a sorrel mare driven by Mr. Samuel Keys. The one hundred dollar premium was taken by a gray mare owned by Mr. Felix Lafferty. We believe the fastest time made was 2:50, which, for a track like that at Beaver, is not by any means bad. The gray mare entered by Lafferty was, no doubt, the famous little "Soft Soap." If so, she could have beaten the time reported several seconds.

An Unwarrantable Charge.
The Post, of Saturday, contains a mean attack on Messrs. Mason & Snowden, the builders of the war ship now in process of construction in West Pittsburgh. These gentlemeh have in their employ about two hundred and fifty men, not one of whom has been attempted to be influenced in his political opinions, although some forty of them are acknowledged supporters of Woodward. The firm gives no political instructions to their men, and the "boss" who left the ship yard did so of his own prompting, and not for any proscription of political opinion. Of course, Messrs. Mason & Snowden have no sympathy for the enemies of the Government, and during their long business career have had hundreds of men in their employ, none of whom did they attempt to proscribe for opinion's sake. We are informed that the parties who were instrumental in having the publication referred to made, have been in the habit of screening deserters.

District Court.—This Court has adjourned until Wednesday. In the case of Glyde vs. Brewer, Watson & Co., the jury have handed in a sealed verdict, which will not be known until Court meets.

Resigned.—Lieut. W. J. Patterson, of the 62d P. V., has resigned, from disability occasioned by a wound received at the battle of Gettysburg. Lieut. Patterson entered the army at the beginning of the rebellion, and has been engaged in nearly all the battles in which the regiment participated, and was wounded at Gaines' Mills, Fredericksburg and Gettysburg, and has always elicited the encomiums of his comrades in arms, for his courage and gentlemanly bearing, whether in the camp or the field. We sincerely hope that under the kind influence of home and friends, he may seen regain his wanted strength.

Return of Ettie Henderson.—This accomplished actress has just returned from Leavenworth City, Kansas, where she performed one of the very best engagements ever known in that place. We saw the lady upon the street on Saturday, and must say that we believe her western trip has agreed with her very much, for we never saw her looking better. Ettie Henderson's engagement was for two weeks in Leavenworth, but such was the popularity into which she grew, that the management insisted upon another twelve nights. Previous to Ettie's departure, a grand complimentary benefit was given her—tendered by the Mayor and leading citizens of the place. From all accounts we have seen, the occasion must have been very flattering to the lady, the Theatre being full to overflowing.

Demonstration in Noblestown.
One of the grandest demonstrations of the present campaign came off at Noblestown on the 9th inst. Though the day was unfavorable, large delegations were in attendance from Findley, Moon, Robinson, North and South Fayette townships, and also from Washington county. The delegations assembled in the morning at Thompson's Mill, at the junction of the North and South Forks of Robinson Run, and at 12 o'clock formed into a grand procession, and after passing through the town, turned on the hill above, and returned to the place of meeting. It is impossible to give even a faint idea of the grandeur of the picture thus formed, as the procession, with flags and decorated wagons, moved up the hill. On arriving at the ground, after the procession halted, a large number of little girls, principally from the "Valley School" of Findley township, assembled on the stage erected, and sang the "Battle Cry of Freedom." The meeting was then organized by electing A. H. Burns, Esq., President, Capt. John Young, Goodman Y. Coulter, and several others, Vice Presidents, and H. H. Morgan, with others, Secretaries. Rev. R. G. Hutchison opened with prayer, after which General Moorehead, Col. Bayne and Capt. John H. Stewart, addressed the meeting with truly patriotic speeches. The "Clinton Glee Club" sang the "Brave Boys," when the immense crowd dispersed, well satisfied that the citizens of the various townships represented, would do their whole duty on election day.

Union Rally at Johnstown.
The Union Convention at Johnstown, Cambria County, Penna., on Saturday last, was really and truly an immense outpouring of loyal, devoted freemen. It was not a mere party or political gathering, but a reunion of good and true men, hitherto entertaining various political sentiments. Party seemed to be forgotten for the time by the thousands who were present, and all appeared determined to show their loyalty to the country, by supporting and encouraging the numerous speakers who were talking in favor of Curtin, the Constitution and the Union. The native born citizen, the Irishman, Englishman, German and Welshman, in fact everybody, with all their relations, were there to cheer for Curtin, the soldiers' friend. A delegation of about twelve hundred, in charge of Colonel John P. Glass, as Chief Marshal, left the city at eight o'clock a. m., arriving at Johnstown at twelve m. After a fair distribution of ratiohs, an organization was effected in the public square by the election of the following officers:

PRESIDENT.—Hon. Geo. S. King. Vice Presidents.—Dr. J. Lowman, Col. E. Shaffer, D. J. Morrell, Wm. Dysent, J. L. Jeffries, Adam Fockler, Jno. Hendrick, Geo. Rineholt, George Herhman, Emanuel Weaver, Wm. Slick, Esq., David Lucas, Sr., Jacob Kaufman, Jacob Erenigh, Henry Veil, John Swegler, W. J. Rose, F. K. Herbinger, Christian Harrison, N. Lingle. Jno. L. Hess, Hon. R. Jones, Jr., Major John Thompson, D. H. Roberts, Jno. Evans, George Empfield, A. Horndon, Jacob Ream and Geo. Leffler, Sr.

Secretaries.—Dr. W. W. Walters, M. A. Boggs, John Haefner, A. M. Gregg, Stephen Vanner, Jas. M. Rea and Alex. Kennedy.

At the main stand, where the officers were elected, the ball was opened by Gen. Brush, of New York, who was followed by Senator Hammond, of the same State, and Gov. Randall, of Wisconsin. It being found that the voice of any one man could not reach the tremendous crowd, different stands were erected in various parts of the town. From a stand in Col. Schaffer's, Esq., and Col. Thos. Bayne delivered most eloquent and patriotic addresses, while at still another, in front of the Mansion House, Judge Sherwood, of Texas, held forth for nearly two hours, on the war, Mr. Lincoln, the Border War, slavery and other topics of interest. He was followed by James Onslow, of this city, who addressed himself, in a speech of some thirty minutes, to his Democratic friends, in favor of sustaining Curtin and the Government.

After supper another meeting was held at the Town Hall, which was addressed by Messrs. Childs and Bayne, who, although hoarse from former efforts, fully sustained their deserved reputations as stirring orators. Many incidents occurred which we have not time to notice, and we will conclude by saying that the Convention was a "big thing," and all who had eyes could see it. No such crowd ever assembled in Cambria county before.

The Oil Trade.
The Oil City Monitor has the following report of the condition of the oil market:—The market remains dull and inactive. A decline from last week's prices has taken place. We quote the ruling prices at the wells at $6,50. Buyers are holding off. Freight to Pittsburgh by river $1 80 in open boats and $1 90 in covered. Shirk & Co's warehouse has sent forward during the past week 1,807 bbls oil, and received 1,443. We extract the following from the Pittsburgh Gazette of yesterday, Oct. 5: The market for Crude was rather dull to-day, and prices declined fully one-half cent per gallon; sale of 200 bbls at 26½c, packages returned, and 100 bbls at same figure. The demand is limited, and confined entirely to the wants of our refiners, as there is no margin whatever for shipment to the eastern markets. Refined, in bond, is very dull, and to effect sales, a material concession would have to be made. There have been no transactions for several days, and as the market is unsettled, we omit quotations. Refined free, is more active, and with a fair western demand. Prices, as yet, are fully maintained. Sale of 100 bbls "Iron City," to go to Chicago, at 65c, and 50 bbls "Petrona," to go to Minnesota, at same figure. Residium is in good request, and we note a sale of 100 bbls. to be delivered within thirty days, at $4 00 per bbl, and we also heard of a sale at $4 12½. Benzine is quiet, with an occasional small sale of deodorized at 20 and 21.

RIVER MATTERS.

THE RIVER LAST EVENING AT TWILIGHT.—There was scant two feet water in the channel, at about a stand. The weather was cool.

THE steamer Ella Faber was sold at Louisville to Capt. Gilmore, for $18,000 cash. She was owned principally in this city.

The weather was mild and hazy yesterday—a taste of "Indian summer."

The river has swollen five inches since our last report. There is thirty inches on Warsaw Bar, and two feet in the canal. The lower Ohio, Cumberland and Tennessee are falling.

The J. D. Hinds, from Portsmouth, and Shamrock, from Louisville, were the only arrivals outside of the daily packets. The Goody Friends, for Pomeroy, and J. D. Hinds, for Portsmouth, were the only departures.

Admiral David Porter has sold the Ida May to Captain Pratt, of New Orleans, for eighteen thousand dollars.

The burned wrecks of the following steamers were sold in St. Louis, on Wednesday: Imperial to Capt. Lanham and owner, for $1010; Hiawatha to Capt. Clark, for $225; Post Boy to Capt. C. S. Rogers, for $525; and the Jesie K. Bell to Capt. Symmes, for $800.

LOUISVILLE.

The river at this point was about on a stand at dark last evening, with 12 inches water in the canal. On Portland bar there is 30 inches water in the channel, 28 inches at French Island, and 30 inches at Flint Island and Scuffletown.

The bar at the mouth of Falling Run, opposite the lower end of New Albany, is getting troublesome. The Mercury was aground there several hours yesterday forenoon.

The rains have been general along the line of the small streams emptying into the Ohio from Cincinnati down, and we expect the river at this point will be rising to-day. Silver Creek and Falling Run were pouring out their yellow flood yesterday morning like wrath. The Wabash and White Rivers are also reported to be rising. Benson Creek, a wild tributary of the Kentucky, together with Elkhorn, were booming yesterday with the effects of the late rains in that vicinity, and a rise in the Kentucky river must follow.

SAINT LOUIS.

The river is falling steadily. In the twenty-four hours ending at ten a. m. yesterday, it receded one-half an inch, and was then three feet one and three-quarters inches above low water mark in December, 1860.

There is four and a half feet scant in the channel out to Cairo, and about the same depth below.

The Illinois river is falling from Peoria down to the mouth, with twenty-two inches in the channel for steamboats.

The Upper Mississippi is falling from St. Paul down. There is three and a half feet on the Upper and thirty inches on the Lower Rapids.

Below Keokuk there is three and three quarters feet in the channel. The worst bar is at the mouth of the Illinois river.

At last accounts from the Missouri river that stream was falling. There is three and a half feet scant above Jefferson and as far up as Lexington, and thirty inches below Jefferson. The Missouri is dead low, and navigation in it will soon close for the season.

A considerable amount of rain fell on Tuesday and Wednesday, and yesterday the weather was clear and cool.

Business on the landing was dull.

The Sam Gaty, which we have already noticed as having sunk in the Lower River, was bound from Vicksburg for Memphis. She had on board 307 soldiers, 157 horses, 57 wagons, and a large lot of clothing for the Thirteenth army corps. The accident happened on the 30th ult., at Island 92. She is supposed to be a total loss. She was valued at $20,000 and insured for $8,000—$5,000 in the Atlantic and $3,000 in the Globe, of this city. The Gaty was ten years old, and had seen a great deal of hard service, in the Keokuk Packet Line, and subsequently in the Illinois River Packet Line.

Baltimore Market—Oct 10.

Coffee—The stock of Rio is much reduced, and sales are slow, owing to the extreme views of buyers. Common to fine grades we now quote at 31½@34c ₱ lb. There is no supply of other descriptions.

Flour—Business on 'Change was confined to small lots of Howard street super at $5 87½@$6, and extra do. at $6 87½@7 per bbl. The market closed very firm in view of the short supply of all grades.

Grain—At the Corn Exchange this morning the offerings embraced 12,000 bushels Wheat, 3,500 do. Corn, and 4,5000 do. Oats. The high grades of Wheat were in active demand, but business in white was restricted in consequence of the spare receipts. Sales comprised 4,506 bushels very inferior to fair Southern white at $1 25@$1 75 cents; 2,000 bushels good to prime do at $1 80@$1

COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK SUGAR MARKET.—Sugars—Raw sugars still meet with a good inquiry and are very firm, though buyers are unwilling to pay 12c for fair Refining, which is generally demanded by holders; 11¾@11⅞c is the highest rate paid for fair Refining to-day; sales of 1000 hhds, chiefly Cuba, at 10¾@12¾c, the inside rate for common molasses sugar; a few Porto Rico at 13c, and 1000 boxes Havana on private terms. Refined are active and buoyant.

PHILADELPHIA LEATHER MARKET.—Trade has been brisk, and buyers from the home and eastern markets are purchasing liberally, and rarely hesitate about the price if not greatly beyond calculation. The tanners are hurrying forward an unusual quantity of leather, and the weather is favorable to the preparation of sole for the market. The stock of heavy leather in store is small, and buyers are sometimes obliged to leave their orders when the kind sought for is not to be immediately obtained.

NEW YORK OIL MARKET.—Oils generally are firm and in fair request at previous rates, with the exception of Petroleum, which is difficult of sale unless at low rates; we quote Refined, in bond, at $53@54c., with moderate transactions, and Crude at 33@33½c. The action of the municipal authorities of Liverpool prohibiting the warehousing of this Oil within the boroughs unless in iron tanks, will have a tendency to restrict shipments very materially, and the parties who have been recklessly speculating in this article the past four months are now placed in a bad position; some of them will be either obliged to throw up their contracts or sell at a serious loss, as the market groans under a burden that cannot be moved easily, unless at lower rates than those now prevalent.

PHILADELPHIA DRY GOODS TRADE.—The Dry Goods market continues very active, and the prices of all the staple articles are steadily on the advance, under the rapid improvement in cotton. The stocks are becoming very much reduced, and the production is unusually light; many of the mills, both here and at the east, being idle, or working short time, owing to the high price of the raw material. Heavy Brown Cottons and Drills are quoted at 40c.; 5-4 goods, 45c.; and 3-4, 27c. Bleached Cottons are better, and Prints are active and 1c. higher. Stripes, Ticks and Checks are also better, and Cotton Flannels scarce, and bringing higher prices. Woodens of all kinds are tending upward, and for all desirable kinds prices are better and the demand active, especially for fancy Cassimeres, Doeskins and Satinets.

PHILADELPHIA HIDE MARKET.—Tanners are sending forward large orders to dealers for both green and dry Hides. The rapid sales of Leather at high prices is stimulating the tanners to larger productions, and consequently a greater consumption of Hides. Neither green or dry Hides have experienced an advance to correspond with the rise in Leather, and the result is a large margin for profit to the tanner. We have to report an advance during the week of ½@1c ₱ lb in green salted Hides, and a still greater advance in dry Hides. The association is selling cows at 12 cents and steers at 13c; salters and dealers are selling at 11½@12½c. The market is poorly supplied with green Hides, although the receipts are large. Buenos Ayres, Rio Grande and Montevideo dry Hides are held at 27@30c.

BOSTON BOOT AND SHOE MARKET.—The Shoe and Leather Reporter says: Business has been a little more quiet, and there are fewer western buyers in the market. Orders for goods are daily received, and many kinds are not to be found in the market, and the manufactures are ordered ahead. Prices are firm, and the cost of manufacture shows a tendency to increase, as stock grows scarce, and workmen, in many localities, are asking for more pay. The New England trade is very active, and the market is swept clean of all goods for men and boys' wear suitable for this branch of the trade. Goods are costing higher than ever before, and there probably never was a time when the market was so bare. The total shipments of Boots and Shoes by rail and sea, for the past week, have been 11,624 cases.

PHILADELPHIA BOOT AND SHOE MARKET.—The Shoe and Leather Reporter says: The shipments from the East, which have been unusually large for the past month, are gradually decreasing. Our jobbers are, however, busily engaged in selling, but the large stock of goods in store does not justify too large shipments in the height of the season. The trade from the West continues good, while the demand from New Jersey, Maryland, and our own State is rapidly increasing. There is very little that is new in the way of prices. Eastern goods are steady and rather firmer for heavy work, while our home productions are selling at full figures.

Notwithstanding the activity among the jobbers, the auction houses seem to be making large sales at remunerative rates, as far as we can judge.

The severity of the inspection of army boots and bootees at the Philadelphia arsenal, is discouraging contractors and lessening the expected receipts.

The Hon. Henry Winter Davis and the Hon. H. W. Hoffman left Baltimore on Thursday evening, to invite the Russian officers and Admiral Farragut to visit that city. Mayor Chapman was to leave on the same errand on Friday.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—James Belford, son of Mr. Charles Belford, of Perryville, Lehigh county, on Tuesday of last week, accidentally shot himself through the head whilst out gunning. He was a promising young man, and highly esteemed by all who knew him.

A special dispatch from St. Paul says intelligence brought by half-breeds to Pembia states that Capt. Fiske's overland expedition to Idaho has been massacred by the Sioux. Nothing definite is given as to time and place, except that it took place on the big bend of the Missouri river.

A painful case of elopement took place at Jacksonville, Illinois, a short time since. One Prof. H. Stauchaver shipped off to Europe with a Miss Annie Rawlins, daughter of a leading merchant of the place, leaving behind a wife who is blind, and four children. He sold all his effects previous to going.

Major Wileman of the 18th Kentucky Regiment, who was wounded in the battle of Chicamauga, and who lately returned home, was taken from his house in Pendleton county, Kentucky, on Monday, by a gang of guerrillas, stripped of his clothing, tied to a tree and shot. Five of the murderers have been caught and brought to Cincinnati.

The Philadelphia North American says that the demoniac guerrilla Quantrell is no other than the celebrated thief, forger, and bigamist, known as Dr. J. R. Hayne, whose likeness is in the Central Station Rogues Gallery. He served five years in the Frankfort, Ky., Prison, being liberated just before the rebellion broke out. He changed his name and obtained Government employment as a major at Washington, but was found unfit for his position. Many years of his life have been spent in prison. He was an expert forger, a cold blooded murderer, and a heartless debauchee—in short, a cavalier of the first water.

IMPORTANT TO
Railway Companies, Mill Owners, &c.
We have erected and have in operation near this city an extensive Labratory for the manufacture of LUBRICATING AND PAINT OIL,
by a new and ingenuous scientific process—and now offer and commend to public notice and patronage three grades: A, B and C, respectively of 1st, 2d and 3d quality LUBRICATING OIL. Wherever these lubricators have been tested they have been pronounced greatly superior to any of the preparation lately offered in the market. The A, or best quality is designed to take the place of the best Sperm Oil, and for use on cotton, woolen or other fine machinery. The B, or second quality for Railways and other like machinery, and the C, or third quality for heavy and course gearing, &c.
The PAINT OIL has been tested by numerous painters in this city, and found to be a Capital Substitute for Boiled Flax-seed Oil.
Indeed, many painters give it a decided preference. These OILS are now extensively manufactured at our
EUREKA LUBRIC OIL WORKS,
As the process is scientific and uniform, customers can rely on the uniform excellence of these economic equivalents of Sperm and Flaxseed Oil. A trial and test is confidently invited. For sale at No. 31 MARKET street, corner of Second.

MEDICAL.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED

HEAR THE WITNESSES.

WORTHLESS and pernicious articles are so often bolstered up in the advertising columns of the press by fabricated letters that the proprietors of

HOSTETTER'S BITTTERS

Rarely give quotations from their business correspondence, lest the GENUINE OPINIONS of those who use and appreciate a GENUINE ARTICLE, should be confounded by the unthinking with the FULSOME RIGMAROLE put into the mouths of MEN OF STRAW by unscrupulous empirics and charlatans, whose double object is to SELL both their trash and the PUBLIC.

Believing, however, that FACTS IMPORTANT TO THE HEALTH AND COMFORT OF THE PUBLIC, and which can be VERIFIED AT ANY MOMENT by addressing the parties who vouch for them, ought not to be hid under a bushel, the undersigned publish below a few communications of recent date, to which they invite the attention of the people, and at the same time ESPECIALLY REQUEST all readers who may feel interested in the subject to ADDRESS THE INDIVIDUALS THEMSELVES, and ascertain the correctness of the particulars.

It may be thought, perhaps, that a preparation like HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, which has long been a STANDARD TONIC throughout the WESTERN HEMISPHERE, and is rapidly becoming a staple of trade at the antipopes, speaks for itself in stronger tones than private eulogium can speak for it. This is true; but the phases of disease are almost innumerable, and every day the instances of the success of the Bitters, either as a PREVENTIVE or a CURE, come to the knowledge of the proprietors through the mails. Some of these are of immediate interest to thousands placed in precisely the same circumstances as the writers who have been PROTECTED and RELIEVED, and therefore it seems almost an act of duty to put them on record.

The immense increase in the sale of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, both at home and abroad, during the past year proves that the world, while it obeys the Scriptural injunction to "try all things," only "HOLDS FAST to that which is GOOD." Spurious preparations, like poisonous fungi, are continually springing up, but their character is soon discovered, and they are "flung like worthless weeds away." On the other hand, a great antidote that performs all it promises, and even more than its proprietors claimed for it on its introduction, is "not for a day, but for all time."

Every dose administered of a useless or deleterious nostrum helps to disabuse the public mind of the impressions it may have received from the flourish of trumpets with which the deceptious article was announced; while, on the contrary, every bottle sold of a purely valuable medicine secures the permanent custom of the purchaser, and makes him an ADVERTISER OF ITS MERITS among his friends. It is thus that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS have obtained their unparalled popularity. The world, indeed, has made the GREAT STOMACHIC widely known, but it is the uniformly successful results of PERSONAL EXPERIMENT that have rendered it a HOUSEHOLD MEDICINE through out the length and breadth of the land, and the main reliance of the TRAVELER, the VOYAGER, the MINER and the PIONEER.

During the Summer months, a pure, wholesome tonic, in which are also incorporated the properties of an anti-bilious and mild aperient agent, is especially needed. Such a preparation is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the surest preventative and cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, and nervous debility, ever placed within the reach of the community.

Against the depressing and sickening tendency of heat and miasma, it is a potent safeguard, and upon persons of feeble constitution and uncertain health, its renovating effects are most extraordinary.

READ REV W. B. LEE'S LETTER,
BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 28, 1863.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Gentlemen:—I have used your Bitters during the last six weeks and feel it due to you and the public to express my hearty approval of their effect upon me. I never wrote a puff for any one, and I abhor everything that savors of quackery. But your Bitters are entirely removed from the level of the mere nostrums of the day, being parent alike to all, and exactly what they profess to be. They are not advertised to cure everything, but they are recommended to assist nature in the alleviation and the ultimate healing of the most common infirmities of the body, and this they will accomplish. I had been unwell for two months, as usual with the coming Spring. I was bilious, and suffering from indigestion and a general disease of the mucous membraue, and though compelled to keep at work in the discharge of my professional duties, was very weak, of a yellow complexion, had no appetite and was much of the time confined to my bed. When I had been taking your bitters a week my vigor returned, the sallow complexion was all gone, I relished my food, and now I enjoy the duties of mental application, which so recently were so very irksome and burdensome to me. When I used your bitters I felt a change every day. These are facts. All inference must be made by each individual for himself.

Yours respectfully,
W. B. LEE,
Pastor of Green avenue Presbyterian Church.

READ E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH'S LETTER.
PROSPECT COTTAGE,
GEORGETOWN, D. C., April 2, 1863.

Messrs. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Gentlemen:—It gives me pleasure to add my testimonial to those of others in favor of your excellent preparation. Several years of residence on the banks of a Southern river, and of close application to literary work, had so thoroughly exhausted my nervous system and undermined my health, that I had become a martyr to dyspepsia, and nervous headaches recurring at short intervals, and defying all known remedies in the Materia Medica, I had come to the conclusion that nothing but a total change of residence and pursuits would restore my health, when a friend recommended Hostetter's Bitters. I procured a bottle as an experiment. It required but one bottle to convince me that I had found at last the right combination of remedies. The relief afforded me has been complete. It is now some years since I first tried Hostetter's bitters, and it is but just to say that I have found the preparation all that it claims to be. It is a standard family cordial with us; and even as a stimulant we like it better than anything else; but we use it in all nervous, bilious and dyspeptic cases from fever down to toothache. If what I have now said will lead any dyspeptic or nervous invalid to a sure remedy, I shall have done some good.

I remain, gentlemen, respectfully yours,

READ JOHN W. BRONOUGH'S LETTER.
NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Bureau of Yards and Docks, Dec. 30, 1862.

Messrs. HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa.:
Gentlemen: About four years since, my attention was called to your celebrated Stomach Bitters, I being at the time a perfect martyr to dyspepsia in all of its terrific forms; indeed, I had not known for six years an uninterrupted night's sleep. I commenced the use of your Bitters, taking them according to your directions, except that the dose was reduced to one-half, and found myself much, very much benefitted by the first bottle; the second relieved me entirely; but I have ever since taken a dose in the morning, immediately on rising, finding it act as a tonic and appetizer of the most agreeable character. There is a peculiarity in the effect of your Bitters on me, which it may be well to state. If from any cause, I shall be suffering never so acutely with the headache, a dose of your Bitters relieves me in fifteen minutes. In conclusion, I say with all sincerity and truth, I would not be returned to the state of health in which your Bitters found me, and from which they have unquestionably relieved me, for all the money in the world.

I am, with great respect, your obd't servant,
JOHN W. BRONOUGH, Chief Clerk.

READ SAMUEL BYER'S LETTER.
NEW CONVALESCENT CAMP,
Near Alexander, Va., May 24, 1863.

Messrs. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Dear Sirs: Will you do me the favor to forward, by express, one-half dozen Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, with bill, for which I will remit you on receipt of the same, as I am unable to procure your medicine here; and if I had a quantity, it could be sold readily, as it is known to be the best preparation in use for diseases having their origin with a diseased stomach. I have used and sold hundreds of preparations, but your Bitters are superior to anything of the kind I am cognizant with. Indeed, no soldier should be without it, should he be ever so robust and healthy; for it is not only a Restorative, but a Preventative, for almost all diseases a soldier is subject to. I have been afflicted with chronic indigestion, and no medicine has ever afforded me the relief yours has; and I trust you will lose no time in sending the Bitters ordered. Yours respectfully,
SAMUEL BYERS, Hospt.
